Community gathers for Redesdale's Biggest Morning Tea - Repeated!

Every year, Cancer Council Australia promote their revenue raising event –the Biggest Morning Tea – and on Thursday 23rd May Redesdale held its' Biggest Morning Tea in the Redesdale Community Hall. Every attendee received a tea or coffee, and a choice of scone (with jam & cream) or sausage rolls, with homemade cakes and slices also available to take home for later. All items available were graciously made and donated by, not just members of Redesdale and District Association and Redesdale Recreation Reserve Committee, but many other community members who felt the desire to contribute to such a worthy cause.

It was wonderful to see such a cross-section of the community support such a worthy cause, and at the same time relax and catch up with other friends.

A brief talk was given by representatives of the Otis Foundation - who operate Kez's Hideaway in Redesdale - reminding everybody just how important the funds contributed were. Raffle prizes were also generously donated by community members and locally affiliated businesses.

With all the time, products and items donated by such a wide range of people, as well as the selflessness of the community members who found the time to attend, or donated online because they couldn't, I am thrilled to confirm the Redesdale community raised a total of $1,102!!!! A result everybody should be proud of.

Editorial

Dear Readers,

By the time you read this, the Clean up Redesdale day may be over (June 1st). This is an annual event followed by a BBQ and a great way to take pride in our little town. Every year a large box trailer full of rubbish is taken to the tip. That people will carelessly jettison bottles, cans, food wrappings (and many other surprising things) from their cars is dumbfounding to say the least!

On a happier note, how fantastic that we now have a podiatrist visiting Redesdale on a regular basis (see page 13). Hurry up and make your appointment!

The Redesdale Hall has never looked so cheerful. The yarnbombing is spectacular (see page 4) and a credit to the knitting and crochet group who meet at the pavilion on Thursdays.

What a gorgeous autumn we have had, now let's hope we get some decent rain.

YARNBOMBING time again!

Yarn Bombing Redesdale Project.

We, a small group of women, gather every Thursday afternoon to knit, crochet and generally enjoy each other's company. We share our expertise and are ready to explore new challenges.

Early last year we became aware of a group of women, much larger than ours, who were attempting to yarn bomb the Black Rock Clock Tower in time to celebrate the International Yarn Bombing Day, Tuesday 11 June. This was a huge undertaking which planted a seed in our minds. What if we were to yarn Bomb Redesdale to warm up the town in winter and celebrate IYBD 2024?

Reality check made us decide that we would decorate the gates and entrance to the hall.

After obtaining permission from the Reserve Committee of Management we got out our hooks and needles and set off.

Around about this time we realised that the Cancer Council Biggest Morning Tea was held near the same time, we decided that we would get the work hung in time for this.

We were quickly able to decide on what to do to the gates, but the Hall entrance presented a different challenge, we decided to have a go at Mandelas and searched for patterns.

This search led us to a 'The Loopy Stitch' pattern called 'Connie's Ray of Hope'.

Connie Johnson

'Connie's Ray of Hope'

Connie Johnson was a cancer sufferer; she had bone cancer at 11, uterine cancer at 22 and finally succumbed to breast cancer. Connie and her brother, Samuel Johnson, set up a charitable organisation promoting awareness of Breast Cancer and raising money for research. 'The Loopy Stitch' was inspired by Connie's story and the Mandela designed in her memory. 'The Loopy Stitch' asked that when making the Mandela we remember Connie's message about the importance of regularly doing a breast check. This message is as important to men as to women because men can also suffer breast cancer.

Our group considered that using that pattern was very fitting for our display. We ask that as you look at it you are reminded of the importance of not only doing a breast check, but also reminding your friends as well. Have another look at our display and search out the relevant Mandelas.

SUPPORT FOR FLOOD RECOVERY

Following the recent floods, our community was offered support and assistance with recovery.

The City of Greater Bendigo came to Redesdale on Thursday 18th April to chat and meet anyone who is in need of help.

Our small town is definitely on their radar according to the Mayor Andrea Metcalf, together with the Deputy Mayor, Matthew Evans who brought with them a very large contingent of professionals offering their expertise and time .

The Redesdale Recreational Reserve Committee hosted the free community event BBQ, courtesy of the Bendigo Council, giving our Redesdale residents the opportunity to chat and register their needs.

Our thanks goes to the council who provided their many resources through the attendance of the following.

Megan Jennings (Senior Design Engineer), Ingrid Watson (Environmental Health Officer) Kim Ross (Emergency Management Officer) Sarah Perry (Resilient Communities Officer) Jay Noble (Recovery and Resilience Project Officer).

Victorian Council of Churches Emergency Management (VCC-EM) Tricia Blanks and Karen Bradfield. Emergency Recovery Victoria , Luke Bott. ( NCCMA) North Central Catchment Management Authority. Vic Butler and Owen Hayden.

Mount Alexander Council, Luke Ryan.

The message is ; "The support is out there and Bendigo Council is listening".

Nationals MP to talk telecommunications in Redesdale

Nationals Member for Euroa Annabelle Cleeland will be in Redesdale in July to discuss the ongoing telecommunications and connectivity issues in town.

Ms Cleeland will be at the Redesdale Hotel on July 3 to discuss the local telecommunications challenges, as well as have a general chat with residents about her role as MP and how she can help with State Government issues.

“After speaking with residents in Redesdale, it was clear there are serious concerns about the quality and reliability of telecommunications in the local area,” Ms Cleeland said.

“I have been meeting with Telstra as we work through some of the telecommunications challenges that Redesdale and its surrounding areas are suffering from.

“I am hoping to share the local concerns with Telstra so they can understand just how much of an impact the lack of reliable phone and internet reception is having on the community.”

Ms Cleeland has previously stressed the need for telecommunications to be considered as critical infrastructure, recently meeting with the Minister for Government Services to advocate to Federal Government.

“Strengthening our telecommunications infrastructure is an essential step to ensuring residents are not left without access to their phones during emergencies such as power outages, floods, and fires,” Ms Cleeland said.

“Mobile phone reception is undeniably critical infrastructure in today’s world, serving as the primary connector between individuals and emergency services.

“During crises such as natural disasters or accidents,

Connectivity Issues Update

Thanks again for all the letters received regarding connectivity issues in our area. Our local State member, Annabelle Cleeland, is very supportive of our efforts to highlight our local connectivity issues and she will be holding a town meeting on July 3rd at the Redesdale Hotel. Details to be confirmed. Please keep an eye on the notice board and community social media pages for more information.

Via Annabelle’s office, I am pleased to report that we have been contacted by Marcus Swinburne from Telstra who would like to hold individual sessions with some of those who have written. Marcus’s title is: Regional Engagement Manager for Northern and Western Victoria, Regional Australia, Consumer and Small Business. He is also reasonably local in that he lives in Woodend and is familiar with our part of the world. We will be facilitating Marcus holding individual sessions.

The community input has been very valuable. Let’s hope our voices will be heard!

On receiving the 40 year service medal for service to the Redesdale CFA.

Redesdale CFA update.

As this time of the year is the safest to do so, many people are taking advantage of the conditions to burn-off.

Remember that it's a good idea to register your burn. You may be unlucky enough that someone will see the smoke and call 000 triggering an unnecessary turnout.

If you intend to burn-off within 2 hours then you will need to call the burn-off notification line on 1800 668 511. If you have planned ahead then you can register online. This is a convenient method as once you have given your details it's a simple matter of submitting the time and day of future burns.

There are rules and regulations about what you can and can't do but just be aware of those around you. Don't burn hazardous or toxic materials, be aware of the wind/ smoke direction and a courtesy call to your neighbours might be a good idea.

Finally, we encourage you to do as much as you can now rather than waiting until the last few weeks before fire restrictions come in, even worse, the start of summer.
